

Mike Stovall
6'5"
Guard
Chicago, IL

High School: Marshall High School

Major: Undecided

Career/Personal Goals: Graduate from college and play professional basketball.

Honors/Awards: Back to Back 3rd place Champ, 2years All-City Shooting Guard, All-State 2 years

Basketball Highlights: Won a dunking contest

Stovall is a versatile, athletic guard that will be able to fill various roles for the Cardinals. He is a big-time shooter that has range from well beyond the three-point arc. Mike is a long and highly athletic player who can really elevate on his shot, but does not need to get many shots to get his points. Stovall was ranked as the #10 player in the 2007 senior class in Illinois by IllinoisHoops.com. He was also rated as a top 20 player in the state of Illinois by Rivals.com (a national recruiting service).

The Scouting Report from MidStatesHoops.com on Stovall is that he is an athletic and versatile guard that has the ability to effectively fill the 1 through 4 positions. Stovall is a very solid player with a lot of potential. He gets to the basket well and knows how to finish in transition. He is both a high-quality finisher on the offensive end and a very solid defender and rebounder.

