MINERAL AREA COLLEGE PRESENTS

Working As A High Performing Team
Development Dimensions International’s (DDI) Interaction Management Series

March 24, 12 – 4 p.m.

For a team to achieve peak performance, its members must involve, support, and trust one another. And they must share information and commit to a process that will lead to success. This course teaches employees how their team can transform itself into a top-performing unit that significantly enhances its impact on the organization. Participants learn the personal, interpersonal, and business advantages of working in teams.

DO YOU FACE ANY OF THESE_issues?
> Are the teams in your organization struggling to meet their goals?
> Do team members fail to take ownership for their particular role and responsibilities on the team?
> Are team members operating under trial and error and wasting effort?
> Do some team members lack the confidence that other team members will be there when needed?

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES
Helps individuals:
> Realize the personal and organizational benefits of working in teams versus working individually.
> Recognize the stages of development that teams typically experience as they grow and mature.
> Use the Team Success Factors and best practices to help their team move from acceptable to high performance.
> Diagnose what is limiting their team from moving to high performance and identify appropriate techniques to overcome such challenges.
> Develop a strategy to help their team progress from one stage to the next.
> Use a set of tips and techniques for working more effectively with virtual team members.
